STORIES IN ACTION

Interactive Tales and Learning Activities to Promote Early Literacy

Promote the love of story, familiarize children with a variety of story forms and stimulate curiosity in diverse subjects while building basic literacy skills. In this guide, dozens of enchanting stories from around the world are accompanied by simple learning extensions for children (ages 4 through 8) that build such important literacy skills as print awareness, print motivation, vocabulary, phonological awareness, listening skills, and predicting and sequencing skills. Each of the 14 chapters begins with an interactive, illustrated folktale finger play as the starting point for a range of literacy building activities such as acting out, re-telling, writing, and discussions; and ends with a short list of related books. A great resource for library story hour, the book will also be invaluable to storytellers, teachers, day care centers, and after school programs. Grades PreK-3.

Bill Gordh is a storyteller, educator, and workshop leader is co-director of Manhattanville College School of Education Summer Arts Institute, where he has taught the Arts In Ed grad level course. He is also Director of Expressive Arts, The Episcopal School in New York City, where he regularly conducts the storytelling program. He has participated in school storytelling residency programs and has presented at numerous educational conferences nationwide.
