

Bill Gordh is an author, musician, educator and storyteller.

His professorial credits include:

- The Episcopal School in the City of New York, Director of Expressive Arts
- Manhattanville College Director of the Summer Arts Institute
- Jacob Burns Media Lab Creator of new childhood curriculae
- General Theological Seminary Adjunct Professor of Pastoral Theology
- Queens College Adjunct Professor in graduate studies
- Early Stages Program Curricular consultant & teaching artist
- Rwanda Film Center Workshop Mentor A Tribeca Film Inst./Scholastic/Clinton Global Initiative/Desmond Tutu Peace Foundation project.

His books include:

- Stories in Action: Interactive Tales and Learning Activities to Promote Early Literacy Libraries Unlimited
- Building a Children's Chapel: One Story at a Time Church Publishing
- Want a Ride? Random House

Some of the places he has performed include:

- New York Philharmonic Avery Fisher Hall, New York City
- Gerald Ford Amphitheatre Vail, CO
- Byzantine Fresco Chapel Museum Houston, TX
- American Museum of Natural History NYC
- Clearwater Festival Croton-on-Hudson, New York
- The White House Easter Egg Roll Washington, DC.